Tradition STYLE IS VERY PERSONAL

| 10009 |

A woman with dark hair is standing on the steps of an ornate, arched doorway. She is wearing a long, dark blue dress with a vibrant floral and geometric pattern in shades of purple, yellow, and white. The dress has a long, flowing train that spreads out on the steps. She is also wearing gold-colored shoes. The background is a highly detailed archway with intricate carvings and colorful murals. The overall scene is set in a traditional, possibly Indian, architectural style.
